

Pension 2050 visionary conference

4 November 2016
Euroopa hall of Tallinn University's Astra-building

- 9.30 Registration and morning coffee
- 10.00 Opening words. President of the Republic of Estonia Kersti Kaljulaid
- 10.20 Kristiina Selgis, Pension Policy Manager at Ministry of Social Affairs
What to do in order to rely on the state pension after 50 years?
- 10.50 Ole Settergren, economist of Swedish Pension Board
Lessons learned from the Swedish pensions reforms
- 11.40 Nigel Keohane, Research Director at Social Market Foundation
Options and freedom: should seniors be able to decide themselves how to spend their retirement money?
- 12.30 Lunch Break
- 13.30 Tallinn University Junior Researcher Tiina Tambaum
Why is it that "I" am normal, but "they" are getting older?
- 14.00 One of Tuleva founders and Member of the Board Annika Uudelepp
Why we created "Tuleva" and how it influences society?
- 14.30 Financial Discipline lecturer at the University of Tartu, Consumer Behaviour lecturer and the doctoral student at EBS, co-founder of the Rahatarkus NGO Leonore Riitsalu
We know we should do it but we don't accumulate funds for our pension. Why?
- 15.00 Career advisor Tiina Saar-Veelmaa
How to reach out to generations Y and Z?
- 15.40 Discussion. Participants – Ole Settergren, Annika Uudelepp, Minister of Social Security Margus Tsahkna. Discussion held by Programme Manager Liisi Uder
What to do in order to be able to cope when retired?
- 16.40 Snacks and open discussion